Foreword

IT IS OUR HOPE AND BELIEF THAT INTO THIS 1946 PANTHER WE HAVE COMPILED THE MORE PLEASANT MEMORIES OF THIS SCHOOL YEAR.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS BOOK IS TO RENEW, IN LATER YEARS, THE MEMORIES OF OCCASIONS AND FRIENDS WHICH WOULD BE OTHERWISE FORGOTTEN.

Dedication

To Coach Earl Killough, who has brought to Hillcrest High School a true school spirit and who has led the school's efforts in gaining a class "A" athletic rating by his teachings of clean play and sportsmanship, do we, the annual staff, dedicate this 19th edition of "The Panther".

MRS. DALLAS BLANKENSHIP
School Secretary

To the Seniors of 1946:

As you leave high school our congratulations and best wishes for your future go with you. You have made definite contributions to the school life of your community, and we are confident that you will also make definite contributions to any social or political group with which you may become affiliated. You will be living in a new and rapidly changing world with many new opportunities and new problems. How well society adjusts itself to those changes, takes advantage of the new opportunities, and solves its problems will be, in part, your responsibility. To meet that responsibility you will need to accept criticism, welcome it as an opportunity to overcome your own faults; you will need to further develop strength of character, for each trivial act, each minor decision has its part in your development; you will need to live unselfishly with and for your fellowman.

It is our foremost desire that as you reach out for a firmer grasp on reality, a grasp in which we believe your experiences in Hillcrest High School have prepared you, that you exercise caution, and good judgment, that you become better citizens in a better world.

"PROFESSOR, HOW COULD YOU" by Anne Coulter Martens

This play continued its amusing and intriguing scheme from the start to the finish of its three acts. It was a modern story taking place in the home of the Professor in a small college town. The complications of the Professor's love life make this an exceptional farce.

Sophomore's Passing Thoughts

PAT ALLAN . . . . . Bright are her eyes like the sheen of her hair
You whom her glances allure--beware.

TERRY ALLEN . . . . . We ask you--try and find
A fellow with a lighter mind.

CHUCK BEST . . . . . Chuck's musical aspirations,
Outdo his other inclinations.

VIRGINIA BUETTNER . . . Were we to seek a new sensation
We'd find it in her animation.

BOBBY CARTER . . . . . That he merits much, I do surmise
Such a pleasant face and kindly eyes.

BILL CRAWFORD . . . . . Pleasing voice and winning smile
Make Bill's acquaintance well worth while.

BERNICE EIDT . . . . . Laden with smiles and anxious to please
Sweetly, friendly, and oh! so nice to tease.

MARVIN FOX . . . . . We like to watch his swinging walk
Or listen to his jolly talk.

PETE GARDERE . . . . . He has that dissent air--
Sophisticate and debonaire.

BILLY KING GLAZNER . . Strength and character in full degree
Wit and a friendly personality.

JOANNE GOEGLEIN . . . . She is for a "very best" friend
The virtues on her do depend.

NANNIE SUE GLEASON . . The merriest girl you ever did see
And a sweller pal you never did see.

SHIRLEY HARRIS . . . . Frankest eyes and manners captivating,
Loving fun, with spirits exhilarating.

DON HOOKER . . . . . I ask you--tell me who
Could be more friendly--more true blue.

JIM HUSKY . . . . . It is not hard to write of you
For you are strong and fine clear through.

MARIAN JOHNSON . . . . She's a sweet little miss, with her hair in curl
And her friends will declare she's a wonderful girl.

MARY LOUISE JOHNSON . . Mary Louise is sweet, clever too.
Thinks she's nice? Say we do!

DeDe JONES . . . . . She's full of pep and knows a lot
You're bound to like her on the spot.

GEORGE JOYCE . . . . . Sincere with a cheerful smile
A friendly chap and a friend worth while.

RICHARD KIRBY . . . . His ambition - to succeed
Opportunity-that's all He'll need.

JOHN KROONE . . . . . Another fellow, consumed by the desire
To really succeed and his efforts never tire.

GENE MANNER . . . . . Most boys want to be engineers
May Gene gain his wish during the years.

MARJORIE MARTIN . . . So full of life and friendly fun
A friend and pal to everyone.

MARY McCARTHY . . . . Serious and sweet, she's talented too;
A friendly light beam in her eyes of blue.

BETTY McDONALD . . . Quiet and sincere,
A sweet person from what we hear.

KENNETH MEAD . . . . Now when a feller needs a friend
Just go to Ken; your blues will end.

TONY MILLER . . . . . We're glad you came to join the throng,
Though you haven't been here very long.

FLORINE MOORE . . . . Florine's such a sweet girl
With red little mouth and hair in natural curl.

JOHN MORROW . . . . . Friendly in his station of world affairs
When he disregards his scholastic cares.

DAVID MURRAY . . . . Through thick and thin
We'll stick to him.

BETTY NAYLOR . . . . Smiling and nice everywhere
This young lady, sweet and fair.

IVAN PALMER . . . . . He is the gayest sort of fellow
Intriguing us with a wit so mellow.

BOBBY PRICE . . . . . A gentleman as nature made him
With handsome looks and poise to aid him

LLOYD REEDY . . . . . For intelligence and good manners
Reedy can take the banner.

ALICE MARIE SHANNON . Smile like sunshine, eyes sky blue,
Can't help like, a friend she could be true.

RALPH SHORT . . . . . No doubt he'd lead a life more gay
If lessons were not in the way.

BILLY SIMMONS . . . . He's very nice with an easy going way
And you'd better listen to what he has to say.

HELEN THOMAS . . . . Here is the girl who is petite
And also very, very sweet.

JEAN VICKERY . . . . Brown hair, shining blue eyes
Serious thought, petite size.

WORTHY WORNACK . . . Like a true fellow he smiles,
And keeps his friends for all the while.

MAUREEN WILKERSON . . Red brown hair and eyes of blue
A sweet face and she's friendly too.

Treasured Memories

Your yearbook is a store of treasured memories. The oft repeated thrill of recollection which accompanies each new search through its pages will many times repay you for the care and consideration which has gone into its creation.

We are proud of the part we have had in the production of this book. It indicates the wealth of ideas and ability which have made possible the long record of our school annual achievement.
